

ALL YOU CAN SKATE & PLAY and CANCELLATION POLICIES

ALL YOU CAN SKATE & PLAY ---

"All You Can Skate", "Almost All You Can Skate", and "All You Can Play" are essentially payment plans designed to enable our skaters to skate as much as reasonably possible for a reasonable monthly fee. The price represents a significant discount on all the possible sessions that the skater might decide to attend. It is based on a year-long commitment (i.e., 8-month, 10-month, or 12-month plans). This is essentially a contract for the period of time that you choose, and cancellation of that contract requires an adjustment.

SCENARIOS:

- (1) What if we participate in "All You Can Skate" for three months, then quit?

If this occurs, this is considered a cancellation of the contract, so the skater will be expected to pay the difference between the contracted monthly price for those months and the full price for the sessions actually attended.

- (2) What if we join the plan after the beginning of the term?

You can join the plan in any month you wish, and the plan will continue for the number of months contracted. However, if you sign up for the 8-month plan, this does not include the Summer School (this is because additional classes are offered in the Summer). If you join the 8-month plan in September, your contract will run from September through March, then pick up again the following August. August will be your 8th month. You will need to pay separately to skate during the Summer term.

CLASS CANCELLATIONS OR REORGANIZATION ---

We reserve the right to re-arrange or cancel classes based on enrollment.

If you pre-register for a class, and we need to cancel or change it in some way, we'll try to notify you in advance and offer alternative classes at a comparable pro-rata rate (a minimum of three days of classes are required to be eligible for the pro-rata rate).

If you did not pre-register for a class, and we need to cancel or change it in some way, we will give you a class that first day at the pro-rata rate, and then you can sign up for additional classes (that have not been cancelled) at the same pro-rata rate.

If you need to cancel after you have registered for classes, we will issue a refund for unused classes minus the $25.00 registration fee. The refund will be issued in the form of a check or credit through the office, not from the counter.
